Literacy grant open to Texas public school libraries

AUSTIN – The ATPE Foundation’s literacy initiative grant provides funds to Texas public school libraries for the modernization of literacy materials and resources. The deadline to apply for the grant is Feb. 1.

Five $1,000 grants will be awarded during the 2011-12 school year.

The ATPE Foundation was established by the Association of Texas Professional Educators (ATPE), the state’s leading educators’ association and the largest independent association for public school educators in the nation.

Educators interested in applying for the grant on behalf of their schools do not have to be members of ATPE to apply.
