The Witch's Guide to Cooking with Children by Keith McGowan

1. Would you rather be friends with Connie or Sol? What character traits do you like best about the person you chose?
2. Why do you think the author chose to title the book The Witch's Guide to Cooking with Children?
3. What was the curse that Holaderry put on the manager? How was it reversed?
4. The witch had a lot of plants in her house that had a strange effect on the children. What do you think the witch used the plants for?
5. Describe how you think Sol and Connie felt after they realized that their father had dropped them off to be eaten by the witch.
6. What clues did the manager give to Sol and Connie that helped them in their struggle with the witch?
7. Why did Connie sabotage Sol's science fair invention? How do you think she felt when Sol demonstrated his invention for the entire school and it didn't work?
8. Do you think Connie deserved to be saved after she had embarrassed Sol so badly at the science fair? Would you have saved her if she had done the same to you?
9. What part in the story was your favorite? Describe your feelings while reading that part.
10. Do you think Sol will ever forgive Connie? He says he will always guard and protect her but never forgive her. Do you think this is true?
