The Evolution of Calpurnia Tate by Jacqueline Kelly (Grades 6–8)

(Summary written by Andrew Taylor's seventh-grade Texas history students from Floresville ISD's Floresville Middle School)

Take a journey through history and science in 1899 with Calpurnia Tate. Callie Vee is 11 $\frac{3}{4}$ going on 12 years old and is torn between her duties as a daughter and her overwhelming interest in science. Relive a youthful summer with Callie as she balances the demands of her mother and family with the scientific world of her Granddaddy's laboratory.
