

ATPE Region 10 Bylaws

Revised May 12, 2021

Article I: Name and Purpose

Section 1: Name

This organization shall be known as the Association of Texas Professional Educators Region 10 (hereinafter referred to as "the Region").

Section 2: Purpose

The Region is organized to promote the purposes and guiding principles of the Association of Texas Professional Educators, as defined in the State Bylaws. The Region is organized for the following purposes: to provide a framework and organization for implementing the State Association's programs and objectives; to provide leadership in assisting ATPE local units within the Region; to implement the programs and objectives of the state and regional organizations; and, to assist in the promotion of items of concern to Region members. No part of the net earnings of the Region Association shall inure to the benefit of any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for ATPE affecting one or more of its purposes.

Section 3: Authority

The Region is a part of the state ATPE. If there is a conflict between the bylaws of the Region and the State ATPE bylaws, the State ATPE bylaws shall prevail.

Article II: Membership

Section 1: Boundaries

In accordance with Article VIII, Section I of the ATPE State Bylaws, the Region shall coincide with the boundaries established by the Texas Education Agency (TEA) for Education Service Center Region 10 in its Texas School Directory dated October, 1979, with the sole exception that Waller County shall be considered a part of Region VI.

Section 2: Membership

As stated in the ATPE State Bylaws, ATPE members within the boundaries of a region are members of that respective regional organization. As such, persons who have paid the prescribed ATPE state membership dues for the current membership year, who educate or reside within the boundaries of the Region, and who have not otherwise had their state memberships suspended will be members of the Region. All "life" members of the predecessor associations Association of Texas Educators (ATE) - Texas Professional Educators (TPE) shall be members of ATPE until otherwise directed by the State House of Delegates.

Section 3: Membership Year

The membership year shall run concurrently with the state of ATPE membership year as established in the state Association bylaws. Article III, Section 3.

Section 4: Charter Procedures

Each regional organization will submit a copy of its duly adopted bylaws and its officer list, upon amendment, to the ATPE State Office.

Definitions to use throughout the Bylaws:

-Assembly is the group of people that have been certified as voting delegates for the Region Convention.

-Convention is the annual event or meeting of the Assembly.

Section 5: Voting Rights

All professional, associate, teacher trainee, college student and retired members of the Region shall be entitled to vote when a matter is submitted to such vote. The only voting rights accorded to the membership of the Region shall be to participate in a Region Assembly and in the election of a region director and region officers and to participate in referendums. No proxy voting shall be recognized.

Article III: Region Officers

Section 1: Region Officers

The officers of the Region shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Immediate Past President, a Director and other officers deemed necessary and elected by the region. No two offices may be held simultaneously by the same person.

Section 2: Tenure/Term

- (a) All officer terms of the region shall run concurrently with the state ATPE officer terms as established in the state Association bylaws, Article IV, Section 6.
- (b) No Region Officer may serve more than two consecutive years in the same position.
- (c) The Director shall serve a term of office as defined by the ATPE State Bylaws. Article VIII, Section 6.

Section 3: Qualifications

All region officers shall be members of the Region.

Section 4: Election

The President shall appoint a nominating committee within thirty (30) days after the Region's first ATPE meeting for the express purpose of suggesting a slate of qualified nominees for the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

The slate of qualified nominees will include a Region Director every two years. In the event only one nominee can be secured for an office, the chairperson of the Nominating Committee will present a letter of the efforts made to the Executive Committee. Such letter is to be signed by all members of the Nominating Committee.

- (a) Once the Executive Committee accepts the recommended slate of nominees, the local unit presidents will receive a written slate of the nominees along with their resume at least thirty (30) days prior to the Region Assembly. Additional nominations may be entered by a petition signed to the annual Regional Assembly. Additional nominations may be entered by a petition signed by at least five (5) Region members prior to or at the time of the Region Assembly.
- (b) Any Professional, Administrator, Associate or Retired member of ATPE may hold an office and a candidate shall currently be serving, or must have served, in the past five (5) years as a local unit officer, region officer, state officer, or served on a region/state committee within ATPE.
- (c) Any candidate for Director shall have served on the Region 10 Board for at least one year within the last 5 years or be a graduate of Leadership ATPE.

Section 5: Removal

Any officer may be removed for cause by affirmative vote of two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the Region Assembly, provided a notification indicating that there will be a vote on whether or not to remove an officer has been given to all members at least thirty (30) days in advance.

Section 6: Vacancies

An officer may resign by submitting a letter of resignation to the Region Executive Committee.

A vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by succession of the Vice President to the office of President for the remainder of the term. A vacancy in any other office, except that of the Region Director, may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by an appointee of the Region Executive Committee.

A vacancy in the office of the Region Director will be filled in accordance with the terms outlined in the ATPE State Bylaws, Article V, Section 7.

Section 7: Duties

The officers of the Region shall have and shall exercise the duties outlined in the ATPE State Bylaws, Article VIII, Section 5.

Article IV: Region Executive Committee

Section 1: General Power

Subject to these bylaws and the overall policy directives of the Region Assembly, the affairs of the Region shall be managed by the Region Executive Committee.

Section 2: Region Executive Committee

The President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Immediate Past President and Director of the Region shall collectively constitute the voting members of the Region Executive Committee and shall have duties as hereinafter described. The Executive Committee may not amend, alter, or repeal the bylaws. Only the Region Assembly shall have that authority.

Section 3: Duties

The Regional Executive Committee shall have and exercise the authority of the Region in the management of the Region. In addition, the Region Executive Committee shall have the following powers:

- (a) Determine annually the number of members and appoint members to all standing committees. From the committee members so appointed, the President shall have the authority to designate the chairman.
- (b) Appoint such special committees as considered necessary or desirable.

- (c) Require each Region officer, including the Region Director, and all committees to submit periodic and annual reports to the Region Executive Committee. Such reports shall be subject to such action as the Region Executive Committee may deem appropriate. Annual reports from standing committees shall be forwarded by the Region Executive Committee to the Region Assembly, and the Region Executive Committee shall have authority to present all others as appropriate.
- (d) Receive, review, and present to the Region Assembly the annual report of the Treasurer and the auditor's annual report of financial matters of the Region. Following approval, the auditor's report shall be printed and distributed to each member of the Region Assembly at its annual meeting.
- (e) Have final authority in setting the annual budget of the Region.
- (f) Set the time and place of the annual, as well as any special, meetings of the Region Assembly and to approve the minutes of such meetings.
- (g) Set the Region policy not inconsistent with the policies established by the Region Assembly and the State Association.

Section 4: Presiding Officer

The Region President shall preside at all meetings of the Region Executive Committee.

Section 5: Meetings

The Region Executive Committee shall meet at least once annually, as determined by the Executive Committee.

Section 6: Notice

Notice of any meeting of the Region Executive Committee shall be given at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting date by notice delivered personally, by U.S. mail or electronic mail to each Region Executive Committee member, including the Region Director, at his or her address as shown on the records of the State Association. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed with postage thereon prepaid. In case of an emergency meeting, at least five (5) days verbal notice shall be given. Any Region Executive Committee member at any meeting shall constitute a waiver or notice to such meeting, except where a Region Executive Committee member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any meeting of the Region Executive Committee need to be specified in the notice, or waiver of notice, of such meeting unless specifically required by law or by these bylaws.

Section 7: Quorum

A majority of the members of the Region Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the committee members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Region Executive Committee, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or by these bylaws.

Section 8: Attendance

A member of the Region Executive Committee who misses two (2) consecutive meetings without just cause, as determined by the Region Executive Committee, will be contacted by the President concerning the member's absence. Absence of the member at the following meeting shall result in an immediate vacancy.

Article V: Region Assembly

Section 1: Duties and Responsibilities

The Region Assembly shall be the supreme policy-making, governing body of the Region, giving overall direction and mandating policy for the operations of the Region. In the event of conflict between action or policy of the Region Assembly and the Region Executive Committee, that of the Region Assembly shall prevail.

The Region Assembly shall:

- (a) Approve all changes in the bylaws of the Region;
- (b) Elect all officers of the Region; and
- (c) Establish appropriate policies for the operations of the Region.

Section 2: Composition

The Region Assembly shall include voting members in accordance with the procedures outlined below.

Voting delegates will include:

- (a) All Region Officers during their respective terms of office; All dues paying Past Directors and Past Presidents of the Region shall be voting members of the House of Delegates.
- (b) One President from each ATPE State chartered local unit organization within the region;
- (c) Notwithstanding (a) and (b) above, region members selected by each ATPE state chartered local unit from within its own membership. Each local may select, pursuant to its own bylaws, one voting Professional Member Delegate for each twenty-five (25) of its Professional Members, or major fraction thereof; one voting Associate Member Delegate for each twenty-five (25) of its Associate Members, or major fraction thereof; one voting

Retired Member Delegate for each twenty-five (25) of its Retired Members, or major fraction thereof; and one voting Teacher Trainee/College Student Member Delegate for each twenty-five (25) of its Teacher Trainee/College Student Members, or major fraction thereof (Teacher Trainee and College Student Members shall be considered one (1) membership classification). The calculation of the number of delegates permitted from each ATPE state chartered local unit shall be based upon the composition of that local unit as of February 1 of that same calendar year.

- (d) Notwithstanding (a) through (c) above, each local unit shall be allowed to select a minimum of one (1) Professional Member Delegate, one (1) Associate Member Delegate, one (1) Retired Member Delegate, and one (1) Teacher Trainee/College Student Member Delegate.
- (e) No member of the Region Assembly shall have more than one vote. Only the Region members can be named as alternates. Associate and Retired Members who hold office in the local unit or who serve as campus representatives may be certified as a voting delegate in the Professional Member category in the event the number of Professional Member Delegates attending from a local unit is less than the number allotted.
- (f) The Region may designate one voting At Large Member Delegate for each twenty-five (25) of its At Large Members, or major fraction thereof based on the number of At Large Members as of February 1 of that same calendar year, as determined by the state office.

Section 3: Meetings

The Region Assembly voting delegates shall meet annually at the Region Annual Convention, which shall be held at a time determined by the Region Executive Committee. All members of the Region shall be entitled to attend meetings of the Region.

Section 4: Notice

Each local unit and region officer shall be notified of the time and place of the annual meeting of the Region Assembly by U.S. mail, electronic mail or by an official publication, in which such notice occupies a prominent position, which has been sent to every local unit and region officer at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the Region Assembly. The Region Executive Committee, or such of its members as might be empowered by the Region Executive Committee, shall prepare and publish an agenda for the meeting. In the event the agenda includes a proposed bylaw change, fifteen (15) day notice to all members of the wording of the proposed bylaws change shall be provided.

Section 5: Quorum

A majority of the duly certified delegates who have been verified in attendance at the annual meeting of the Region Assembly shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of delegates present and voting at a meeting of the Region Assembly at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Region Assembly, unless act of a greater number is required by law or by there bylaws.

Section 6: Term of Office

Unless otherwise specified herein, a delegate who serves in the annual Region Assembly shall continue in his or her office until a duly selected successor serves.

Section 7: Presiding Officer

The Region President shall preside at all meetings of the Region Assembly.

Section 8: Certification of Delegates

Each Local Unit shall be responsible for the selection of delegates as herein above provided. The Local Unit President shall certify to the Region Secretary the names of delegates and alternates fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the Region Assembly. The Local Unit President shall be responsible for any substitution to the list of delegates previously submitted, up to and including the day of the Region Assembly. Likewise, the Region President shall be responsible for certifying and updating the names of the Regional Officer Delegates. The Region President shall be responsible for certifying and updating the names of the At Large Member Delegates.

Section 9: Agenda

If an item has not been placed on the agenda of the Region Assembly, any member of the Region may file a request with the Region Secretary to be heard at a time to be designated by the presiding officer and shall be allowed to speak not more than five (5) minutes.

The author of a proposed amendment shall have five (5) minutes to speak before the Region Assembly in defense of the change.

Section 3: Appointment

The members of the Standing Committees shall be appointed by the President from among Region members in such numbers as deemed appropriate.

Section 4: Other Committees

The Region Executive Committee shall appoint, from among Region members, such special committees as are considered necessary or desirable.

Section 5: Term of Service

Each member of a committee shall serve for one year from the date of appointment, or until the duties of the committee are fulfilled unless the committee shall be terminated sooner, or the member be removed, or cease to qualify.

Section 6: Chairman

One member of each committee shall be designated chairman by the Region President.

Section 7: Vacancies

Vacancies in any committee may be filled by appointment by the Region President.

Section 8: Quorum

Unless otherwise provided in the resolution of the Region Executive Committee designating a committee, a majority of the whole committee shall constitute a quorum and the act of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee.

Section 9: Rules

Each committee may adopt rules for its own governance not inconsistent with these bylaws or with rules adopted by the Region Executive Committee. All recommendations for implementation of programs will be the responsibility of the Region Executive Committee unless these bylaws specify action by the Region Assembly.

Section 10: Limitation of Service on Committees

No member of the Region may simultaneously serve on more than two (2) committees of the Region, whether standing or special.

Article VII: Contracts, Checks, Deposits and Funds

Section 1: Contracts

The Region Executive Committee may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the Region, in addition to the officers so authorized by these bylaws, to enter into any contract or executive and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Region. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2: Checks and Drafts

All checks, drafts, orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Region shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the Region in the manner determined by resolution by the Region Executive Committee. In the absence of such designation by the Region Executive Committee, the instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by the President or Vice President of the Region.

Section 3: Deposits

All Region funds shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Region in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the Region Executive Committee may select.
